

CHÂTEAU
des Fleurs
PARIS
CHAMPS ÉLYSÉES

BREAKFAST

A nod to history

Originally, the Château des Fleurs was a magnificent garden, owned by the king of Parisian festivities, Victor Mabile, of the famous Bal Mabile. The enchanting scenery vibrated with a festive atmosphere, as carefree as it was refined, and illuminated garlands hung overhead. The beautiful society of the 19th century mingled with revelers of all origins in a joyous eclectic mix. People came here to celebrate the pleasures of life, to dance, to have fun, and to seek adventure with the «lorettes» always in search of gifts.

Dismantled to make way for the development of the district, the Château des Fleurs is reborn today, as a nod to that Paris of elegance and lightness, sparkling with "joie de vivre", as in the Belle Époque. Welcome!
